

Inaugural East Cobb Theatrical Shine on Charity Golf Classic
Indian Hills Country Club, Marietta, GA
Monday, August 17, 2023

February 1, 2023

Brittany Leazer Productions and School of Performing Arts is a school in Marietta, GA for students ages 4-18 that specializes in training students to excel in the performing arts. They are devoted to developing young actors who are filled with courage, confidence, and passion in a Christ-centered environment. Students participating in the program will learn to reach within themselves to affect and move audiences.

When Brittany was six years old, she found a home in the performing arts which has led to a career in acting, playwriting, directing, singing, and public speaking. Brittany is passionate about helping other students find their home in the performing arts.

Brittany is an award winning professional actress and has produced and directed over 60 children and young adult productions. She holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Acting and a Master's Degree in Playwriting. Passion for theatre and teaching drives Brittany to help students reach their goals and shine on stage.

TOURNAMENT OBJECTIVES:

The objective of this inaugural charity golf tournament is to raise funds to directly support the activities of East Cobb Theatrical and more importantly to provide families, businesses, and community partners with the opportunity to interact and to experience the staff and students one to one.

All proceeds will go to the support Brittany Leazer Productions and School of Performing Arts and to support East Cobb Theatrical, a program established to create and develop a new and larger performing arts center enabling the BLP Company to expand programs and educational opportunities reaching more students in the local area and providing more opportunities for the creation of additional community theatre programs.
